Tom Trodel

Tom,
Now that school is almost out we can sit down when we want to and get as drunk as we want to. Don't have to worry about spo or anything. Good luck in the future Trod

Jeff Trop

Tom
I
Our great wrestling is over and our great Senior year is almost over. You're one of my favorite friends (as far as boys go!). You have to be great in the future. Good luck in Youre a Trojan and have fun because Youre a real good guy.

Best wishes,
Karl

Tom:
Well, wrestler, it was a long year but we've finally made it! Never forget our Set class- Your were a great asset. Don't turn into an 'alk' now. Will you? I hope that everything you want you get!
Be Good + Good Luck

Love,
Vicky

THE STORY OF THE PLEIADES

THE "LITTLE DIPPER" STAR CONSTELLATION IS KNOWN AS THE PLEIADES. THIS IS A GROUP OF SEVEN STARS WHICH LOOK AS IF THEY ARE QUITE CLOSE TOGETHER. THE IROQUOIS INDIANS SAY THERE WERE AT ONE TIME SEVEN LITTLE INDIAN BOYS WHO WERE GREAT FRIENDS. EVERY EVENING THEY WOULD FIRST EAT THEIR CORN AND BEANS, AND THEN ONE OF THEIR NUMBER WOULD SIT ON THE MOUND AND SING, WHILE THE OTHERS DANCED AROUND THE MOUND.

ONE TIME THEY THOUGHT THEY WOULD HAVE A MUCH GRANDER FEAST THEN USUAL, AND EACH AGREED UPON WHAT HE WOULD BRING FOR IT. HOWEVER, THEIR PARENTS WOULD NOT GIVE THEM WHAT THEY WANTED, SO THE LITTLE LADS MET AT THE MOUND WITH OUT THEIR FEAST. THE SINGER TOOK HIS PLACE ON THE MOUND AND BEGAN HIS SONG WHILE HIS COMPANIONS STARTED TO DANCE. AS THEY DANCED, THEY FORGOT THEIR SORROWS AND "THEIR HEADS AND HEARTS GREW LIGHTER," UNTIL AT LAST THEY FLEW UP INTO THE AIR. THEIR PARENTS SAW THEM AS THEY ROSE AND CRIED OUT TO THEM TO RETURN, BUT UP AND UP THEY WENT UNTIL THEY CHANGED INTO THE SEVEN STARS. NOW, ONE OF THE PLEIADES IS DIMMER THAN THE REST. THEY SAY THAT IS THE LITTLE SINGER, WHO IS HOMESICK AND PALE BECAUSE HE WANTS TO RETURN BUT CAN-NOT.

To an inhabitant of a distant city, a Chieftain is probably just some sort of Indian. For anyone who reserves a special place in his heart for Riverdale High School, however, the mention of a Chieftain brings back wonderful memories of all those exciting high school days.

What exactly is a true Riverdale Chieftain? Well, he is loyal, honest, dependable, a hardworking student, and a good sport. He is the type of guy who does his own chemistry experiments instead of copying his friend's--even though he may not thoroughly understand everything he is doing. He goes into an open lab or to the student aide in the library when he needs help with his math, instead of just deciding he doesn't know how to do it. A true Chieftain realizes he'll probably understand his English better if he reads it in the quiet atmosphere of the library. Being on time for classes is a habit of his, not an occasional happening.

The bleachers were full of true, loyal Chieftains on that cold, rainy night when we won our first football game in years. Those same loyal Chieftains were also in the bleachers watching and cheering on our football team on nights when they weren't so successful. How about the pep band at basketball games? That's right, more loyal fans.

Dependability is also an important part of a good Chieftain's character. If his name is on the weekly list to make pep club posters, he makes them. He shows up at the annual staff meeting every week, even though there might be a movie on television that he would rather watch. If he promises to make a bulletin board for a teacher, it's finished when he said it would be--not two weeks later.

All of these characteristics can be found in a true Chieftain. Once again, what is a true Chieftain? A true Chieftain, hopefully, is YOU!

The Pleiades Immortalized the Past.

The Riverdale annual once again presents itself for your enjoyment, relaxation and careful scrutiny. Long hard hours of "burning the midnight oil" go into each page of finished copy. Many times, when a deadline approches, a staff member literally eats, breathes, and sleeps annual. With trembling hands a finished sheet is handed over to the editor for final inspection. More than once, a heart-bending sob has issued from the machines room when some staff member realizes that he's or she's done a page wrong and must do it over again. No, it's not quite that bad, but many hours of intense concentration and dedicated service do go into the publishing of the Pleiades. The effort is entirely for the benefit of the students and faculty at Riverdale High School. We of the annual staff and our advisor, Mrs. Eaton, feel that the production of the annual is necessary to carry out part of the noble tradition of our school. We are justly proud of the superior quality of the Pleides and the care and concern we have devoted to the recording of the past and immortalizing the name of Riverdale High School "1971".

News Media for the Masses

A vital nerve center in the life of the average student, the Teepee Talk has had a very successful year. At the beginning of the year its editor, Debora Avery, and several other staff members attended a newspaper workshop at the University of Wisconsin. They came home bubbling over with new ideas for the school paper. With the approval of their advisor, Mrs. Chicker, they started molding the paper into an interesting and enjoyable work of art. Many additions were made and articles took on an added zest. Sports writers and reporters were everywhere gleaning out bits of news and interesting quips. A senior interview resembled a novelette rather than something from a criminal lineup. All of these changes make a better paper, and we know the Teepee Talk will continue to improve.

The members of the Dance Band for the 1970-71 school year were chosen for their ability to play modern music.

On October 20, tryouts were held for the All-Star Band at Mineral Point. Those who were chosen were given information concerning the forthcoming concert and their parts. On November 21, they traveled to Platteville and spent most of their day in preparation for the concert of that night. It was open to the public. The students who participated in the concert were generally from the southeast part of Wisconsin.

Pop Machine Was Their Responsibility

The Student Council is the governing assembly of the student body. One representative is elected from each homeroom. The four officers, all members of the senior class, are voted upon by the entire student body.

The major money-making project for the Student Council was assuming responsibility for the pop machine in the Commons. The members saw to it that the machine was refilled when it needed to be and that there was always enough change in it. The machine was closed for the remainder of the day if any empty pop cans were found in the Commons.

The Student Council was also responsible for organizing the Homecoming activities. They assigned duties to each class, and saw to it that there were no repetitions in the skit and float competitions.

The Student Council also sponsored a dance in the spring.

All Council members took their turn at refilling the pop machine.

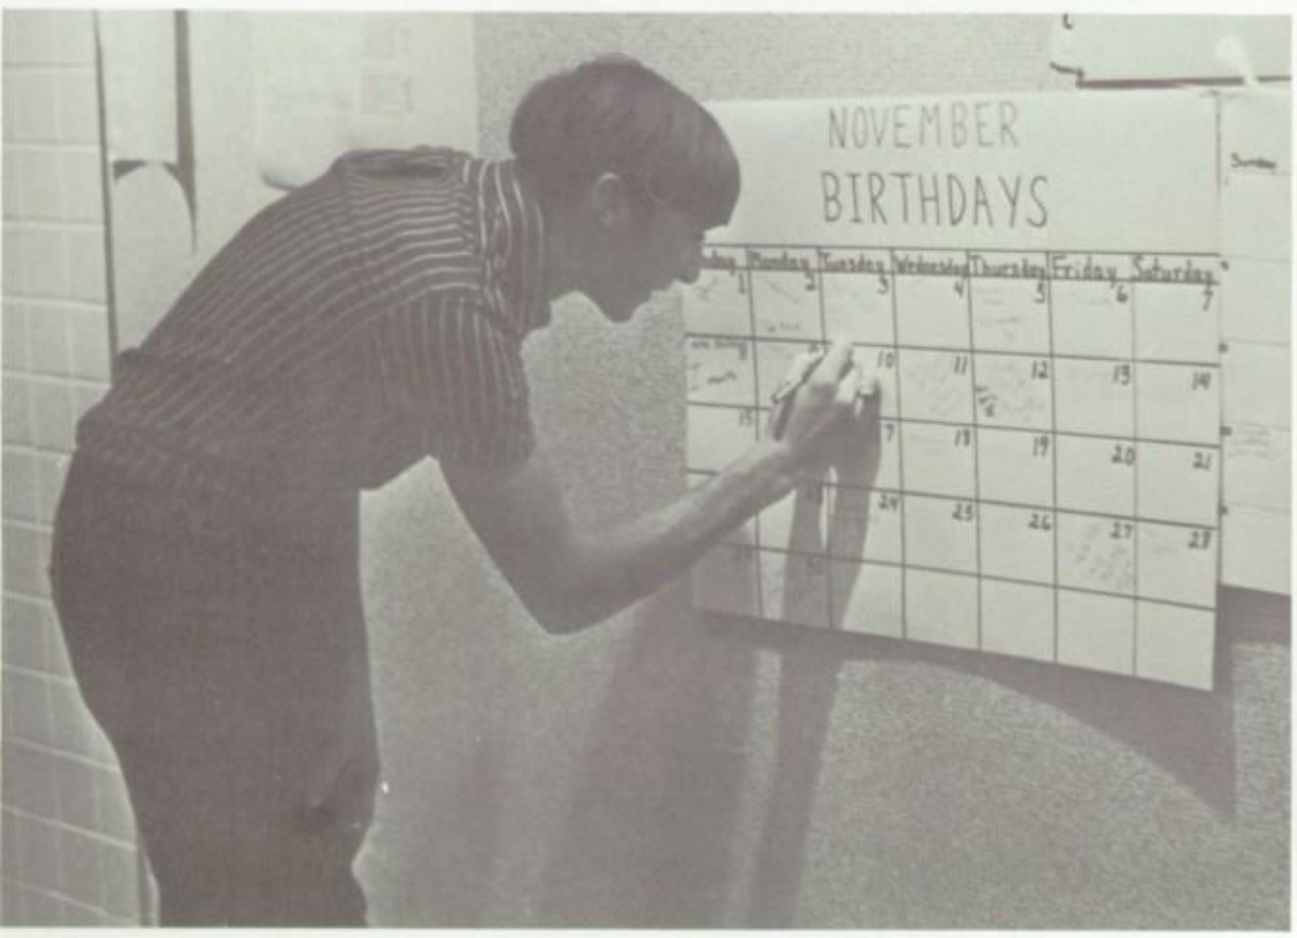
STANDING: John Ramsden, Ava Chezik, Pat Sorge, John Hennessy, Eleanor Rehbein, David Hardy, Judy Tracy, Marilyn Pechan, Karen Dilley, Betty Duhr, Mary Foley.

If you needed help, the conference room was the place to go.



A student aide program, designed to help students having trouble with their academic subjects, was initiated this year by the National Honor Society. An N.H.S. member, willing to help, could always be found in a conference room reserved for that purpose. Occasionally, teachers who had more students in their open labs than they were able to help, would send some of them to the student aide room in the library for help.

Other activities of the Honor Society included acting as hosts and hostesses for parent-teacher conferences and for the Science Fair.

Each month, a birthday calendar and an activity calendar could be found on the main bulletin board, another project of the N.H.S.

The members also visited the Muscoda Nursing Home shortly before Easter. At this time, each member presented an Easter basket to a resident of the Home.

Sponsoring a teacher appreciation day was another item to be found on the list of activities of the Honor Society.

In the spring, a formal initiation for new members and installation of officers for the up-coming year were held at a special evening ceremony.

Points are given to Pep Club members for each athletic event attended, and for working on other Pep Club projects. If a member has enough points at the end of the school year, he is given a special Pep Club pin. Two year winners are given a guard signifying the year.

Hard to Earn Their Pins

BOTTOM ROW: S. McGargle, V. Keller, M. Hennessy, S. Williamson, P. Miess, R. Prohaska, C. Baxter, J. Bremmer. ROW 2: B. Gutknecht, S. Delkamp, L. Thompson, A. Chezik, M. Bremmer, C. Elder, D. Rachuj, J. Hennessy, J. Bailey, M. Swaziek. TOP ROW: E. Rehbein, D. Hipenbecker, S. Anderson, M. Bailey, D. Olson, C. Myers, M. Dieter, K. Draves.

To earn points, members may help prepare the programs for athletic events, take "stats" at sports events, or sell candy at the annual candy sale. Pep Club members also raise and lower the flag daily. Attending one of the club's potluck suppers is another way to earn points. Making posters for the games and matches is a favorite way to earn points.

The more candy you sell, Eleanor, the more points you earn!

The "cream of the crop" symbolizes the Riverdale High School Letterman's club. The combination of skill and stamina as well as co-ordination and agility, make up the governing body of Riverdale athletics. The Letterman's club takes a very active role in keeping spirit and heart in athletics. Because of their concern for the future of our athletic system the "R" Club purchased a video tape machine thru a community drive. The club also changes the activity sign in front of the school and sponsors the sale of emblems and letter jackets.

Judy not-so-proudly displays a hard earned G.A.A. trophy.

One of the most active organizations devoted to female members of the student body, is the Girls' Athletic Association. Its objective is to develop the body, something which other organizations place a lesser importance upon. The shouts and laughter issued from a G.A.A. meeting certainly prove its worth as an important organization in our school. It develops sportsmanship and character as well as providing an excellent opportunity for fun and recrea-job in filling that void in a young girl's life.

The Future Homemakers of America actively participated in projects benefiting themselves, their school, and their community this year.

A collection for UNICEF was made throughout the district. At their annual Christmas party, the F.H.A. girls caroled at the Muscoda Nursing Home.

Following the assignment of Big Sisters to new members, an informal initiation was held. This was followed by a formal ceremony.

Serving at both the Athletic and F.F.A. banquets was another project of the Future Homemakers.

The Mother-Daughter banquet was held again this year. Part of the program consisted of a style show which featured some of the members modeling garments they had made. The officers for the upcoming year were installed at the banquet.

Four of the new officers attended the state convention. It was held during June at Green Lake, Wisconsin.

Serving at banquets is part of the life of an F.H.A. girl.

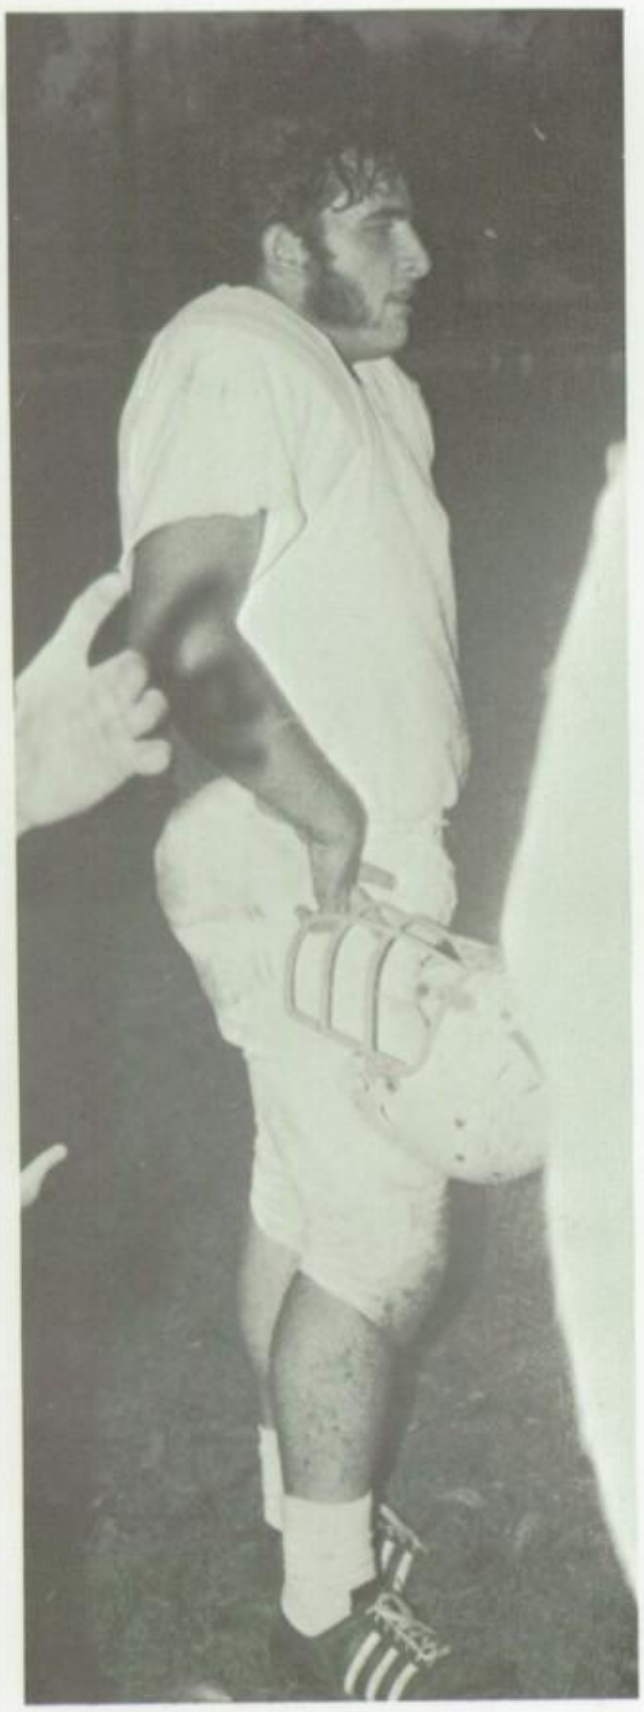
Varsity Football Looked Good —



One of the most exciting things that happened this past school year was Riverdale High School's football comeback. Maybe some think that winning one game isn't much of a comeback, but ours is not one to be measured in points, even though most of our games were very close and could have gone either way, but in participation. The squad came on the field with "True grit" and determination. They weren't just boys coming out to have a good time, they were men out to win themselves a niche in the hall of sportsmanship. With the help of Coach Terriquez, we came from a previous record of defeat to our first victory. There is no doubt in our minds as to the important role the team captains, Tim Drone, John Hennessy, and Jeff Troxel played in lifting team morale to a point where defeat could no longer restrain it. Technical helps like the audio-visual tape machine also played a decisive role in the change from a purely offensive game to one where our chieftains' tomahawks began to draw blood. This extra effort by our varsity squad makes us proud to be members of R.H.S. and to stand up and say, "This is our football team"

The moon shone brightly in the star-studded sky as the Class of 1971 presented their Junior Prom "Moonlight and Roses" on April 25, 1970. A park complete with trees, benches, and an old-fashioned wishing well provided a romantic setting for prom go'ers. Rose covered trellises added to the atmosphere.

Just prior to the Grand March the 1970 Royalty were announced. Karol McQuillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken McQuillan, was crowned Queen. Jeff Troxed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Troxed was named the 1970 King. Mark Deakins and Terri Lee Wiser served as the Miniature Royalty.

The music for the evening was provided by the Townsmen.

For the Prom Court, the Class of 1971, and all those who attended, it was a night to remember.

King Jeff and Queen Karol proudly led the Grand March, while their parents and friends looked on.

Gee! This isn't half as bad as I thought it would be!

The 1970 Homecoming activities began on October 8. There was an evening program which consisted of skits, a bonfire, and snake dance. Each class, the Drama Club, and the cheerleaders participated in the skits. The senior class received a trophy for the best skit.

Following the skits the bonfire, which had been constructed by the seniors, was lit by the king and queen. Music was provided by the pep band and cheers were led by the cheerleaders. After the bonfire, Queen Carla Kovars led the snake dance through all the business places in Muscoda.

The next day school was dismissed early and the parade began. There were many creative floats entered. The Riverdale High School and Junior High bands participated. The juniors won a trophy for the best float.

Friday evening, in spite of the rain, Chieftain fans saw much excitement. A tough battle was fought between the Riverdale Chieftains and the Prairie du Chien Blackhawks. The Chifetains were defeated 6-0.

After the game the activities were climaxed by the coronation and grand march, and dancing to the music of "The Sound Corporation."

In Memory

Patty Aide

January 11, 1953-January 28, 1971

Afraid? Of what?
To feel the spirit's glad release?
To pass from pain to perfect peace,
The strife and strain of life to cease?
Afraid--of that?

Afraid? Of what?
Afriad to see the Savior's face,
To hear his welcome, and to trace
The glory gleam from wounds of grace?
Afriad--of that?

Afraid? Of what?
A flash--a crash--a pierced heart;
Darkness--light--O heaven't art!
A wound of his a counterpart!
Afriad--of that?

Afriad? Of what?
To do by death what life could not--
Baptize with blood a stony plot
Til souls shall blossom from the spot?
Afraid--of that?

Tom,

Here's wishing the best of luck to a fellow wrestler. I was really proud of you when you took 3rd at the Reedsburg Invitational and when you wrestled middaugh of Mineral Point. You really wrestled good at those tournaments. I also admire the way you cut all that weight. To me, that means a lot of dedication on your part. You sured looked like a living corpse once in a while!! I sure was glad if I helped you in anyway this year. I really thought a lot of you as a wrestler and a good friend. Come and watch me wrestle at the UW next year if I make the team.

May the future bring you happiness and joy always. Good luck in everything you do.

Dear Tom,

I don't think either of us could have made it through this year without the Commons, right? You're a nice guy, but I wish you wouldn't drink that sinful liquid that you like so much. Only naughty boys do that! Sometime I'll come out & watch a cow have a calf (soon as I get enough guts!)

Take it easy & be good.

Tom,
Was really wonderful cheering for you this year. You as well as others did your best, aren't you proud to know you wrestled on the bestest team in 71. Im really proud of ya Tom.
Remember state tournaments when we all stayed up at Madison, and went to Johns house with two cases. I was so damn tired I didnt know what the hell was coming off, all I know is that I lost in that marble game we played.
Take it easy on the booze Tom. I always will remember the night Rick Procheska had a party at his house. I dont mean to bring back bad memories Tom, but we really had a good talk out of that, a talk which got me in trouble with Big Lesy, but I feel it was worth it. Its good to talk when there's know other way out of things. You know that night you sure downed alot of beer, I mean one right after an other. Just keep up the good fast beer drinking, but take it easy. I wish you the best of luck Tom, you really deserve

Tom,
Hurs wishing you a swell summer the best of luck in what ever you do. It has really been alot of fun the 2 yrs we have wrestled together all the fun we had. Have a good summer Tom
